INTRODUCTION

On the 348 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the applications submitted for shares of the money that was appropriated for the Eastern Cherokee Indians by the Congress on June 30, 1906. The Eastern Cherokee applications, August 29, 1906-May 26, 1909, are part of the Guion Miller Enrollment Records that are among the records of the U.S. Court of Claims. This publication also includes a general index to Eastern Cherokee applications (two vols.).

History

Before the U.S. Court of Claims was established in 1855 there was no procedure by which claims arising against the U.S. Government could be enforced by suit. Consideration of claims was provided for when the Treasury Department was established in 1789; later acts of the Congress authorized the Department to settle all claims by or against the Government. If a claim was rejected by the Treasury Department, the claimant's only course of action was to appeal directly to the Congress. Petitions to that body for relief had become so numerous by the middle of the 19th century that the Congress was beginning to find it impossible to make the proper and necessary investigations for actions on the claims.

The U.S. Court of Claims was established by an act of February 24, 1855, to hear claims against the United States including those referred to the court by the Congress, based on any law of the Congress, any regulation of an executive department, or any contract with the Government, whether explicit or implied. Under this act the court served only as a factfinding agency, and its conclusions were submitted to the Congress for approval and for the granting of awards. In 1863 the Congress enlarged the court's jurisdiction and gave it authority to render judgments against the Government, with the right of appeal to the Supreme Court. An act of 1925 abolished appeals from the Court of Claims to the Supreme Court and substituted writs of certiorari.

An act approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 726), gave the Court of Claims jurisdiction over any claim arising under treaty stipulations that the Cherokee Tribe, or any band thereof, might have against the United States and over any claims that the United States might have against any Cherokee Tribe or band. Suit for such a claim was to be instituted within 2 years after the act was approved. As a result, three suits were brought before the court concerning grievances arising out of the treaties:

(1) The Cherokee Nation v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23199; (2) The Eastern and Emigrant Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23212; and (3) The Eastern Cherokees v. The United States, General-Jurisdiction Case No. 23214.

On May 18, 1905, the court decided in favor of the Eastern Cherokees and instructed the Secretary of the Interior to identify the persons entitled to participate in the distribution of funds for payment of the claims. On June 30, 1906, the Congress appropriated more than $1 million for this purpose. The task of compiling a roll of eligible persons was begun by Guion Miller, special agent of the Interior Department. In a decree of April 29, 1907, the court (1) vacated that part of its earlier decision that had given the Secretary of the Interior responsibility for determining the eligibility of claimants and (2) appointed Miller as a special commissioner of the Court of Claims.

The same decree also provided that the fund was to be distributed to all Eastern and Western Cherokee Indians who were alive on May 28, 1906, who could establish the fact that at the time of the treaties they were members of the Eastern Cherokee Tribe or were descendants of such persons, and that they had not been affiliated with any tribe of Indians other than the Eastern Cherokee or the Cherokee Nation. The decree further provided that claimants should already have applications on file with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, or should file such applications with the special commissioner of the Court of Claims on or before August 31, 1907. Additionally, applications for minors and persons of unsound mind were to be filed by their parents or persons having their care and custody, and applications for persons who had died after May 28, 1906, were to be filed by their children or legal representatives.

In his report of May 28, 1909, Miller stated that 45,847 separate applications had been filed, representing a total of about 90,000 individual claimants, 30,254 of whom were enrolled as entitled to share in the fund--3,203 residing east and 27,051 residing west of the Mississippi River. On June 10, 1909, the court confirmed and approved the roll, submitted by Miller in his report, of Eastern Cherokees who were entitled to a share of the fund except "so much as shall be expected (excepted) to on or before August 30, 1909." After the exceptions had been filed and investigated, Miller submitted a supplemental report and roll to the court on January 5, 1910. In this report he stated that about 11,750 exceptions had been made, that the names of 610 persons (238 east and 372 west of the Mississippi) had been added to the roll, and that the names of 44 persons (5 east and 39 west of the Mississippi) had been stricken from the roll because clerical errors in enrollment had been discovered. Thus the final figure on the total number of persons entitled to share in the fund was 30,820, of which 3,436 persons resided east and 27,384 resided west of the Mississippi River. On March 15, 1910, the court finally decreed that the rolls be approved and that, after certain deductions for expenditures, payments were to be made equally among the Eastern Cherokees who were enrolled. The court also authorized the Secretary of the Treasury to issue a warrant in favor of each person.

In certifying the eligibility of the Cherokees, Miller used earlier census lists and rolls that had been made of the Cherokees by Hester, Chapman, Drennen, and others between 1835 and 1884. Copies of some of these rolls and the indexes to them are filed with the Miller records (filmed as M685). Other enrollment records used by Miller are among the classified subject files of the Bureau and are designated as "33931-11-053 Cherokee Nation."

Records

The applications contain sworn evidences of identity and were filed with the Interior Department's Office of Indian Affairs until April 29, 1907 (the last application was No. 22268), after which the applications were filed directly with the court. The application required each claimant to state fully his or her English and Indian names, residence, age, place of birth, name of husband or wife, name of tribe, and names of children. It further required the English and Indian names of the claimant's parents and grandparents, place of their birth, place of their residence in 1851 if they were living at that time, dates of their death, and a statement as to whether any of them had ever before been enrolled as Indians for annuities or other benefits and, if so, with what tribe. Each claimant was also to furnish the names of all brothers and sisters, with their ages and residences, and the names and residences of all uncles and aunts. Applications were required to be made under oath and to be supported by affidavits of two witnesses who were well acquainted with the applicant. With each application is a card showing final action taken and the reasons therefore. Filed with many of the applications are inquiries concerning the status of the cases, requests for further evidence, protests about unfavorable actions, form letters that had been sent by the special commissioner to the applicants as notices of rejection of their applications and returned by the Post Office Department as unclaimed, affidavits and statements of witnesses, powers of attorney, and last wills and testaments. The applications are arranged by the number assigned at the time the application was received. There are some gaps in the application numbers; these are explained on insert sheets at the appropriate places on the film. The index is arranged alphabetically by name (either English or Indian) of claimant.

Many of the files contain a cross-reference card to other applications. This cross-reference card often refers to the EX file, the report on exceptions filed by Miller on January 5, 1910.

Dear Sir:

In re F. D. R. #30377 with #6793.

Replying to yours of January 27th, I beg to submit the following: Andrew Talley, the writer of this letter, was enrolled on the Cherokee roll at Fort Gibson, I. T. He is a full brother of Silbud Talley, deceased, the father of James W. Tally, whose claim it is hereby hoped to establish. The said Silbud Talley was enrolled at Fort Gibson, I. T. as a one-sixteenth degree Cherokee. He was the son of Betsy Talley, nee Polston, who was also placed on the Cherokee roll at Fort Gibson, having been previously enrolled in Alabama. It is through she and Silbud Talley that James W. Tally claims his Cherokee descent.

You will note from this, that I, Andrew Talley, am the uncle of James W. Tally who was placed on the Cherokee roll by the Dawes Commission as of number 22087.

Mally Tucker nee Talley, of Lenapah, Oklahoma, was also enrolled at Fort Gibson, is a full sister of Silbud Talley and an aunt of the said James W. Tally. If this information is not satisfactory, let me know and I will give you such further information as may be required.

Very truly yours,

Andrew Talley

App. No. 30377 - 6793

January 27, 1909.

Andrew Tally,
Ft. Gibson, Okla.

Sir:-

With reference to your application for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund, you have filed a supplemental application in which you include the names of two minor children, Maggie and Rosetta Tally, and another child by the name of James W. Tally for whom you state you are guardian. However, in order to establish the claim of this minor, James W. Tally, it will be necessary that his Eastern Cherokee descent be shown.

You do not state whether or not the child is any relation to you, or if related, what such relationship is. Kindly let us know at once who were the parents and grandparents of this child. Through which side does he claim his Indian blood? If any of his ancestors were on the roll, where were they enrolled and who were they? Give us a full history of this child's Cherokee ancestors, and if you are not his father, if either one of his parents are living or he has any other near connection, kindly give their present names and addresses. If he is enrolled by the Dawes Commission, give his enrollment number.

Kindly reply promptly, referring to F. B. R. #30377 with #6793.

Very respectfully,

W. R. L. J. C.

Special Commissioner.

Dear Sir

Mr. Canon
your letter just received about the enrollment of names
and my three previous letters.
I will be able to tell you that I have no record of their names & ages. They were brought to me and so I could never see them and their names
in the certificate in the mind of Indian Agent or court of claims &c. Some say they said they were not of any age but the same as the other children, all I can do is to send their names and so I thought I would write you to see what you thought about them

here I write their ages & names

Testimony in the above case.

Robert C. Glover being first duly sworn, deposes
and says:

My name is Robert C. Glover; I live at Long Island, Jackson Co., Ala.; I am a son of Alethia Glover who has filed an application for her minor children of whom I was one, the number of her application is No. 42041. My mother is out west at the present time. I claim Cherokee Indian blood through my father and his mother. As far as I know my father and his mother always lived with the white people; I never heard of their living with the Indians; they were recognized as white people where they lived. I never heard of my father or grandmother getting any land or money from the government on account of having Indian blood.

My grandmother's sister, Orlene Coffield, nee Copeland got some money in 1851- she was living at Peatown in the North Eastern corner of Jackson Co., Ala. I never heard of my grandmother getting anything or of being enrolled. I don't know the name of my great-grandparents on my father's mother's side. My father's mother's name was Jane Glover-nee Copeland. Father was living in Jackson Co., Ala. in 1882- I never heard him say why he was not enrolled at that time but I have heard other people say that there was no agent around at that time.

Mr. James O. Payne,
c/o J. F. Atkins, Marmet, W. Va.

Dear Sir:-

Replying to your letter of August 27, 1907, you are advised that the applications for participation in the Eastern Cherokee fund have not been taken up for final consideration, and we cannot state at the present time whether or not you are entitled to participate in this fund, or how much each successful claimant will receive.

As there are already over 36,000 applications on file, and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

If there is any further information required in connection with your application you will be notified.

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.

Dear Sir, Yours of 28th

ult recd in reference to appln. #30406.

Why my parents or grand parents were not registered, I cant answer, further than to state that this matter had never been agitated nor an opportunity offered to enroll. Our people all being ignorant of what was necessary or that might be beneficial to them in this matter, perhaps left undone what should have been done. None were ever held as slaves.

Please state what further information is necessary for me to obtain, to set up my claim.

Respectfully

James Fitch.

Mr. Chester Howe. Dear Sir As I have never written you at any time about our Claims or rather the Burris Claims to the Cherokee Indian fund I will ask if in your opinion the evidence we have furnished in our applications will be sufficient to establish our relationship with the Cherokees. This is taken from the family records from the present time back to the births of John Burris and Ester Perry the exact time of their marriage we have not got. but it might be obtained as we understand they were married in Surry Co North Carolina by the Society of Friends. it might be proper for me to state to you that the Burris name originally was spelled Burroughs but for the past three generations it has been spelled Burris in order to shorten the spelling. But all being the same family. Our relationship to the Cherokee Indians has never been denied neither has a generation past that has not been made familiar with the fact.

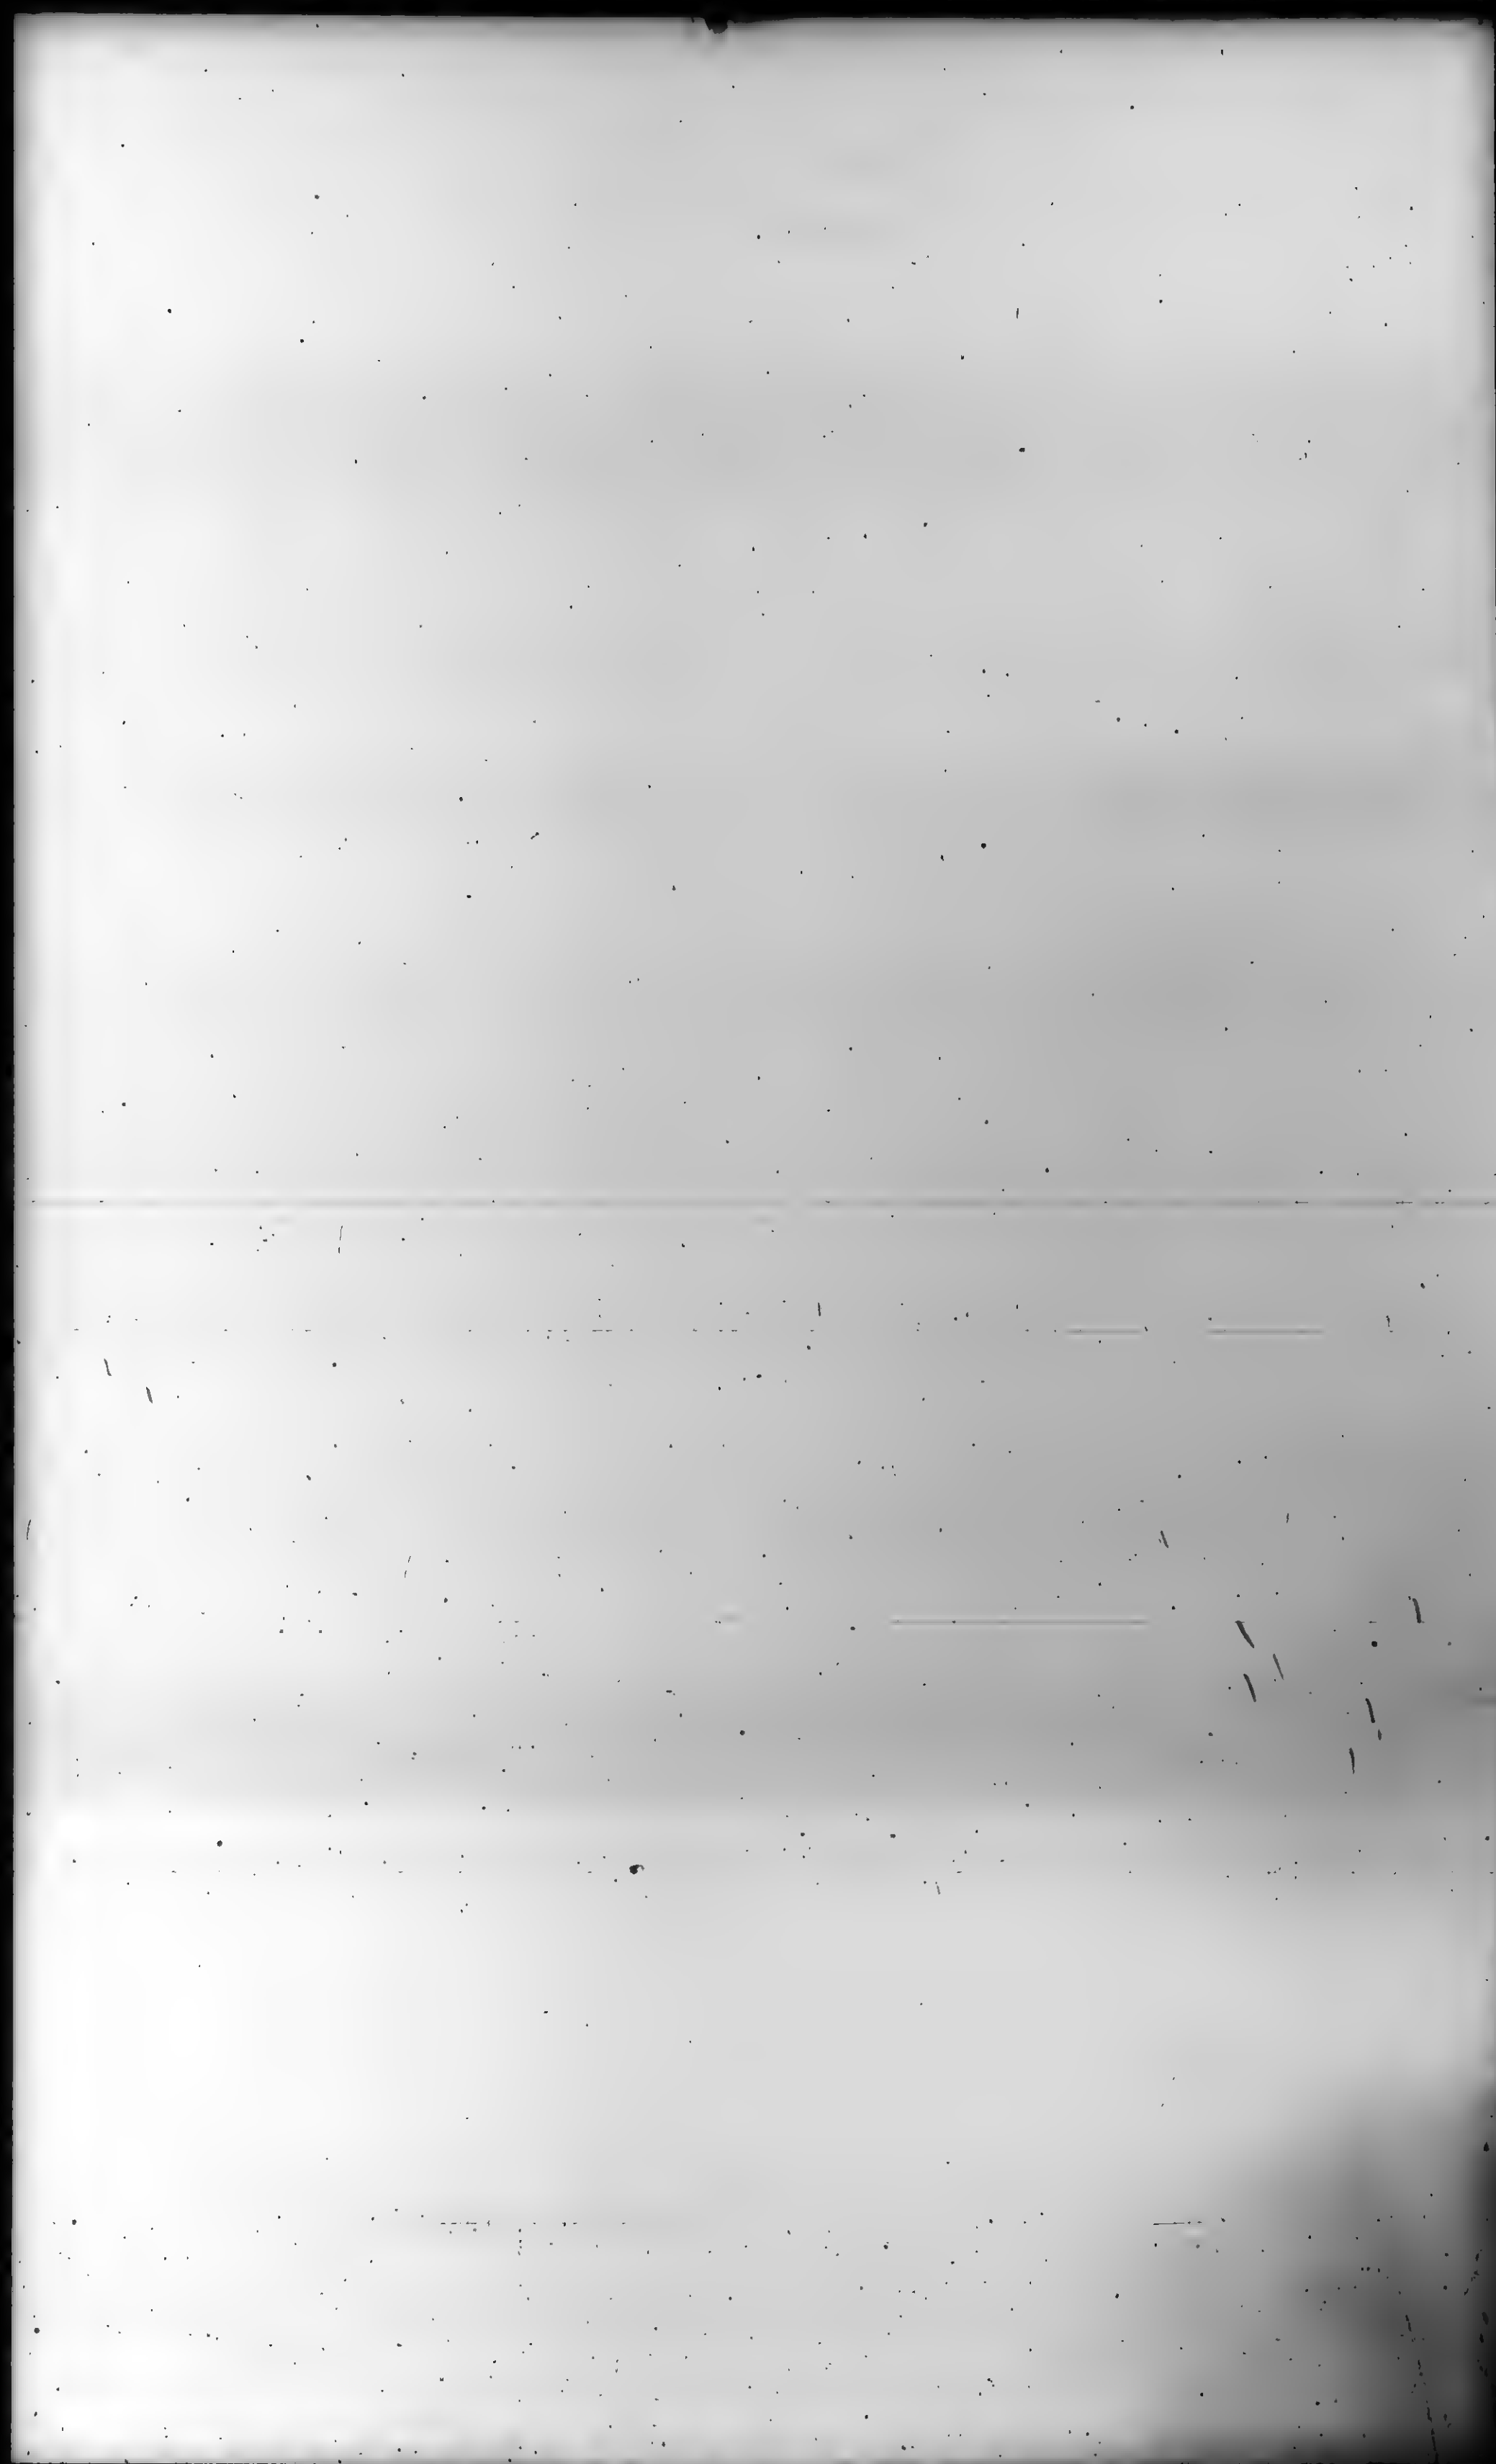

the No of my Claim is 30440.

Mr Chester Howe Dear Sir

I hope I will not worry you in furnishing information of no value to our Indian Claims but have thought that the answer to one question in our Applications was not made as clear as it should have been more for lack of space than overthought. where I was required to give names of my Grand Fathers Children this I did giving all my full Uncles and Aunts but after my Grand Mother died my Grand Father was twice married his second wife was Margaret Williams and they had two Children Isaac Franklin Burris and Labitha Ann Burris now Labitha Ann Bereen and after the death of these Childrens Mother he married Susana Carey and they had one child Rhoda Burris now Rhoda Griffith her address Moorman Tennessee. I do not know Aunt Labithas address but Uncle Isaac lives near Durant Indian Territory. he served through the civil war and soon after it was over went to the Indian Territory and has ever since made it his home he married an Indian woman and she remarked to my husband a few years ago when down on a ^{over} visit that Isaac was recognized by the Indians as one of their people even

Mr. Union Miller,

Dear Sir,

I hope this writing, will not be considered out of order, as I feel we need a little advice since our Attorney Chester Howe has deceased.

I will ask you if we should appoint some one to represent us in his stead, or would our claims fair just as well to leave them rest with you and the Court of Claims, as you have all our evidence in your possession that has been called for up to the present time. If your position would admit of you giving us this bit of advice it would be greatly received.

The above refers to Claim No. 80440.

Honorable John W. Gaines,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.

Sir:-

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter of January 8, 1908, inclosing a communication from Mr. Thomas W. Johnson, of Nashville, Tennessee, relative to his claim to participate in the fund arising from the judgment of the Court of Claims in favor of the Eastern Cherokees.

In reply permit me to say that this application has not yet been taken up for final consideration, and it is impossible, at this time, to state when the money appropriated for the payment of this judgment will be distributed.

It will be necessary first to have a complete enrollment of all those entitled to share in the fund, and to have this enrollment approved by the Court of Claims. Until this is done no money can be distributed.

More than 44,000 applications have been filed by claimants residing in all parts of the United States. These applications will all have to be examined, grouped in families, and in many instances testimony will have to be taken in the field before a decision can be reached as to the merits of the claim. This will necessarily take considerable time.

Mr. Johnson's letter is returned herewith.

Sir:-

Replying to your letter of September 14, 1907, you are advised that the application of Fattie V. Moore and minor child has been received and filed in this office.

As the applications for participation in the Eastern Cherokee Fund have not been taken up for final consideration, we cannot state at this time whether or not Mrs. Moore and child are entitled to share in this fund, or the amount each successful claimant will receive.

As there are over 43,000 applications on file and the claimants are widely scattered through the United States, it will necessarily take considerable time to have all of these cases adjudicated, and until they are so determined no money can be distributed.

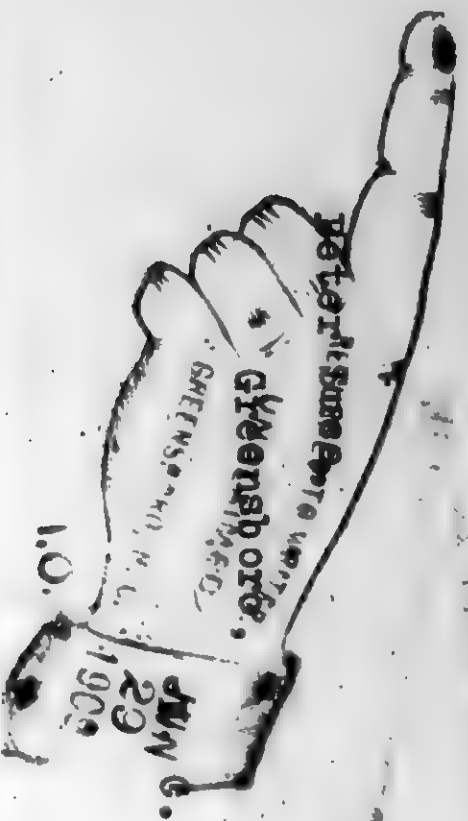

Very respectfully,

Special Commissioner.
